

國際化
국제화
国际化
国際化

CPATHi18n.org

internationalization of computer science education

May 15-17, 2009. Portland, Oregon.

Workshop 3: Moving i18n Forward: from Ideas to Implementation

(Registration 3:00-4:00 PM Friday May 15. Workshop ends at noon Sunday, May 17.)

Tentative Workshop Schedule

- Friday Afternoon: *Reports on Featured i18n Pilot Projects
 - Global Distributed Software Engineering Courses (Avaya Labs, University of Oregon, Peking University, Portland State University, Vietnam University of Science)
 - International Summer School on Networking (University of Oregon, Tsinghua University)
 - New CPATH Proposals to NSF, CPATH at SIGCSE
- Friday Evening: Dinner and Keynote Speaker: Maggie Johnson, Director of Learning and Development, Google
- Saturday All Day: Working Groups (preliminary list)
 - Cross-cultural HCI
 - Global Distributed Software Engineering
 - International Computer Ethics
 - International Summer Schools
 - Articles on Computer Science Education in the Pacific Rim
 - Model i18n Curriculum and Recommendations to IEEE/ACM
- Saturday Evening: *Banquet and Interactive Computer Music Concert
University of Oregon Knight Professor Jeffrey Stolet
- Sunday Morning: *Working Group Reports, Future Plans
- Sunday Afternoon: *Optional tourist activity: tour of Mt. Hood and Timberline Lodge

Sponsored by the U.S. National Science Foundation